

What Do I Bring?

That's a good question. As always, the final decision is yours. Here are some things to consider.

- Bedroll (this can be a sleeping bag or blanket with pillow and sheets) Bible Pen or pencil Sunscreen Flashlight Personal drink container with lid 😊
- Towels
- Swim wear (must be modest) plan to wear a t-shirt over for added sun protection, Hat and Plenty of old clothing for play
- Personal toiletries
- 🙏 Money for offering
- Water shoes or old tennis shoes for pond Your own life jacket and fishing pole if you choose to.
- 🙏 Campers are not allowed to call home. Parents will be notified in the event of illness or injury. This provides your child with an opportunity for personal growth. Calling home usually causes more problems than it solves.
- 🙏 Parents or guardians may visit during camp. You will be required to register with the camp director and stay in the presence of another adult while at camp.

PLAN TO ARRIVE MONDAY AT NOON. BRING A SACK LUNCH! 😊

We will all picnic together and then begin the day's events.

Remember, you can pick your camper up Friday between 11:00 and 12:00.
